

A Sunday in Erris!

- Lighthouse Drive: Journey down the Mullet Peninsula to see Blacksod Lighthouse (on mainland) and Blackrock Lighthouse (off the coast). Travel north to Dún na mBó to view Eagle Island (a stone's throw from the cliffs) and onwards near Erris Head to see Ballyglass Lighthouse (on the mainland). Four lighthouses – fantastic!
- Beach to Bar: After a stroll at the seaside, you can walk to the local pub for a pint or cupán tae (cup of tea) in the following villages / towns: Pullathomas, Inver, Rossport, Ceathrú Thaidhg, Barnatra, Belmullet, Binghamstown, Doohoma, Geesala, Aughlea and Blacksod.
- Get creative: Lúnasa Handmade Crafts is a treasure trove of local handmade items, with workshops in dozens of traditional crafts. Get stuck in & make something to take home with you. [Open Sundays 11.30am to 4.30pm during summer]
- Go Wild in the Atlantic Ocean – coasteering, kayaking or surfing with Wavesweeper Sea Adventures or UISCE – an amazing experience for both kids & adults!
- Enjoy a leisurely cycle around Erris or follow one of the many looped routes, e.g. Carrowmore Lake Loop. [Note: Belmullet is a national cycle hub]
- Lunch or dinner - enjoy the taste of locally-sourced ingredients in one of the award-winning restaurants of Erris. Check out www.errisbeo.ie for details of local pubs, cafés and restaurants.
- Shore Road: Go for a swim in the tidal pool in Belmullet (lifeguard in July & August), or just stroll along the promenade.
