

Erris: Something for the kids!

- Lúnasa Handmade Crafts is not just a treasure trove of locally made crafts & furniture. It is also a hive of activity, where kids can get creative with hundreds of traditional & contemporary make-and-take kits – get stuck in now!
- With an outdoor tidal pool for children in Belmullet (lifeguarded in July & August) and indoor pools in the Broadhaven Bay Hotel, kids can enjoy hours of splashing & paddling!
- Discover the wild & wonderful landscape of the Erris region, with cliff-top hikes & trails that traverse white sandy beaches! (Bring along a tour guide for a more insightful hike!)
- Getaway to the Gateway - with ten pin bowling lanes, arcade games, mini-golf, archery, pool tables and one of Ireland's largest (supervised) indoor playframes!
- Check out Áras Inis Gluaire for children's events e.g. Cineclub na nÓg – a supervised kids' film club with fun activities, through English & Irish (as Béarla agus as Gaeilge).
- There are many festivals running in Erris throughout the year, with dozens of activities & events for children and families to enjoy. Check out www.errisbeo.ie
- Learn about the wildlife, flora & fauna of Ballycroy National Park with the Plover Club (primary school children) at 2.30pm every Tues & Thurs in July & August (except 16 July)
- Come and play in nature's larder & enjoy a wild foraging walk - at the seaside or on the land – with Barbara from Gaol Siar!
- Hire a youth bike (or a child seat, or trailer bike, or a tagalong) and cycle against the wild Atlantic wind until the road runs out . . . next stop New York!
