

What the locals do in Erris!

- Swim in the Blacksod Bay tidal pool on Shore Road in Belmullet, which has a lifeguard patrol in July and August.
- Enjoy delicious local homemade boxty, bread or scones, or a mouth-watering dinner with local ingredients! Check out www.errisbeo.ie for details of our local pubs, cafés and restaurants.
- Golf on a 9-hole links course [Doohoma] or a 27-hole links course [Carne Golf Links] – both on stunning locations beside the Atlantic Ocean!
- Enjoy a walk on the seaside prom in Belmullet, or along a nearby beach, or on a marked trail, e.g. Erris Head Loop, Cross Loop, Ceathrú Thaidhg Loop.
- Go fishing in a river, a lake, on the shore, or in the wide open seas! See www.errisbeo.ie for details of local fishing clubs and boat charters, or get their contact details on the Erris Beo app.
- Grab your tin whistle and join in a Comhaltas traditional music seisiúin – weekly summer music sessions in Áras Inis Gluaire (or just listen & enjoy, with a cupán tae!), or go to the local pub for some live music.
- Cycle against the wind until the road runs out . . . next stop New York!
